

Book Review due 11/26

1. Read a book that is at least one hundred pages (without pictures).
2. On a large note card (about 6 inches x 4 inches) create the following:
 - a. Front: an illustration of the book (either hand drawn neatly or computer graphic), title of book, author, genre, number of pages and your name.
 - b. Back: In paragraph form include the setting, plot, characters, theme, and your favorite part of the book. Also include why you would recommend it to another student.

Front	Back
  Captain Underpants and the Attack of the Talking Toilets by Dav Pilkey Genre: Humor Pages: 121 Created by Silvia S. 	The story is about elementary school students George and Harold turn their mean principal Mr. Krupp into Captain Underpants. Captain Underpants was their favorite hero from the comic books they created. They turned Mr. Krupp into their favorite hero by buying a 3-D Hypno-Ring. They used their intuition to use the Hypno-Ring to hypnotize their principal to throw away a video of Harold and George making a mess at a football game. The theme of this book is that kids are smarter than grown-ups. Harold and George are always tricking the adults. For example, when they pull a big prank on the school by putting bubbles into the band's instruments during a football game. Mr. Krupp tries to get them in trouble by telling the boys he will tell the players on the football team happened at the game. Harold and George are afraid the football team will kill them. So they buy the hypno-ring and then hypnotize their principal and get him to throw away the video. Then they start to play around and then George decides to turn Mr. Krupp into Captain Underpants. The principal starts to take off his clothes so he has only his underwear and cape on. He then jumps out the window to find ways to save the world. I liked this book because it is entertaining, creative, and it makes you laugh. Another reason why I like this book is because I like reading about all the pranks they play at school. For example when the cheerleaders start to sneeze or when the flip-a-rama happens. In conclusion, I think this is a great book and I highly recommend it to readers seven to eleven years old.

Book Review Due 11/26

1. Read a book that is at least one hundred pages (without pictures).
2. On a large note card (about 6 inches x 4 inches) create the following:
 - a. Front: an illustration of the book (either hand drawn neatly or computer graphic), title of book, author, genre, number of pages and your name.
 - b. Back: In paragraph form include the setting, plot, characters, theme, and your favorite part of the book. Also include why you would recommend it to another student.

Front	Back
  Captain Underpants and the Attack of the Talking Toilets by Dav Pilkey Genre: Humor Pages: 121 Created by Silvia S. 	The story is about elementary school students George and Harold turn their mean principal Mr. Krupp into Captain Underpants. Captain Underpants was their favorite hero from the comic books they created. They turned Mr. Krupp into their favorite hero by buying a 3-D Hypno-Ring. They used their intuition to use the Hypno-Ring to hypnotize their principal to throw away a video of Harold and George making a mess at a football game. The theme of this book is that kids are smarter than grown-ups. Harold and George are always tricking the adults. For example, when they pull a big prank on the school by putting bubbles into the band's instruments during a football game. Mr. Krupp tries to get them in trouble by telling the boys he will tell the players on the football team happened at the game. Harold and George are afraid the football team will kill them. So they buy the hypno-ring and then hypnotize their principal and get him to throw away the video. Then they start to play around and then George decides to turn Mr. Krupp into Captain Underpants. The principal starts to take off his clothes so he has only his underwear and cape on. He then jumps out the window to find ways to save the world. I liked this book because it is entertaining, creative, and it makes you laugh. Another reason why I like this book is because I like reading about all the pranks they play at school. For example when the cheerleaders start to sneeze or when the flip-a-rama happens. In conclusion, I think this is a great book and I highly recommend it to readers seven to eleven years old.

